Under the supervision of senior analytical staff, the successful candidate will be instrumental in assisting senior analysts in the credit review process. Responsibilities will include:

- Attending Borrower meetings
- Assisting in preparing comprehensive rating recommendations for presentation to credit committee
- Drafting sections of press releases, credit research, and topical reports
- Supporting special projects related to the sector
- Additional projects and assignments as assigned

The ideal candidate will exhibit an intellectual curiosity in the health care sector and its financing.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree and three or more years of relevant experience in healthcare credit analysis or healthcare finance
- Accounting degree is preferred
- Must be a self-motivated professional with solid accounting, credit analysis and spreadsheet skills
- Must have excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Ability to handle numerous projects simultaneously
